

OFFICIAL CALL
Chesterfield County Republican Canvass
Special Election
Commonwealth's Attorney of Chesterfield County

I, Tara Carroll, Chair of the Chesterfield County Republican Committee, pursuant to the Republican Party of Virginia Plan of Organization and as directed by the Chesterfield County Republican Committee do hereby issue this call for a Party Canvass to nominate a Republican candidate for the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for the County of Chesterfield, to be voted on in the Special Election to be held on November 6, 2018.

The Party Canvass will take place on Saturday, August 11, 2018, from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the six locations noted below.

Qualifications for Participation in the Canvass

All legal and qualified voters of Chesterfield County under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, regardless of race, religion, national origin or sex, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, and who, if requested, express in public meeting either orally or in writing as may be required, their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election, may participate as members of the Republican Party of Virginia in its mass meetings, party canvasses, conventions or primaries encompassing their respective election districts.

A voter who, subsequent to making a statement of intent, publicly supports a candidate in opposition to a Republican nominee shall not be qualified for participation in party actions as defined in Article I for a period of four (4) years.

In addition to the foregoing, to be in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, unless otherwise stipulated by the appropriate Official Committee, a person otherwise qualified hereunder shall not have participated in Virginia in the nomination process of a party other than the Republican Party with in the last five years. A single exception to this shall be approved for a voter that renounces affiliation with any other party in writing, and who expresses in writing that he/she is in accord with the principles of the Republican Party and intends, at the time of the writing, to support the nominees of the Republican Party in the future. Any voter that utilizes the foregoing exception, and thereafter participates in the nomination process of a party other than the Republican Party, shall not have the benefit of the exception identified in this paragraph thereafter.
