

PLAN OF ORGANIZATION

THE CHESTERFIELD COUNTY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

ARTICLE I NAME

The name of this organization shall be "The Chesterfield County Republican Committee," hereinafter referred to as the "County Committee."

ARTICLE II STATEMENT OF PRINCIPLE

The purpose of the County Committee is to promote the promulgation of the principles of the Republican Party, which are as follows:

- (1) That the free enterprise system is the most productive supplier of human needs and economic justice;
- (2) That all individuals are entitled to equal rights, justice, and opportunities and should assume their responsibilities as citizens in a free society;
- (3) That fiscal responsibility and budgetary restraints must be exercised at all levels of government;
- (4) That the Federal Government must preserve individual liberty by observing Constitutional limitations;
- (5) That peace is best preserved through a strong national defense; and
- (6) That faith in God, as recognized by our Founding Fathers, is essential to the moral fibre of the Nation.

The County Committee will encourage qualified candidates committed to these principles to seek election to public office; will assist in electing candidates committed to these principles; will assist generally the citizens of Chesterfield County; will assist elected Republican officials in the execution of their responsibilities; and will hold accountable those elected Republican officials who fail to govern their actions pursuant to these principles.

ARTICLE III
PARTICIPATION IN PARTY ACTIONS

Section 1. - Qualifications.

A) In General - All legal and qualified voters under the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, regardless of race, religion, national origin, or sex, who are in accord with the principles of the Republican Party, and who, if requested, express in open meeting either orally or in writing, as may be required, their intent to support all of its nominees for public office in the ensuing election may participate as members of the County Committee. Members shall meet the qualifications for participation in the Republican Party as set forth in Article I of the State Party Plan.

B) Pending Applications - A person who has made application for registration and meets all other requirements of Section A, but whose name does not appear on the local registration books solely because of the books having been closed in connection with a local election, will nevertheless be deemed eligible for membership.

Section 2. – Participation - All Chairmen and members of the County Committee, delegates to Conventions, and voters in mass meetings or party canvasses provided for in the State Party Plan, shall be members of the Republican Party as stated in this Article, and must be legally qualified voters of the Election District which they represent as Chairmen, members, delegates, or voters.

ARTICLE IV
DEFINITIONS

Section 1. - Definitions. The terms used throughout this plan of organization are defined as follows:

"State Party" - Republican Party of Virginia

"State Party Plan" - Plan of Organization of the Republican Party of Virginia

"County Plan" or "Bylaws" - Plan of Organization of The Chesterfield County Republican Committee

"Election District" - Chesterfield County, a magisterial district, precinct or portions or combinations of such political subdivisions which comprise the area defined by law in which an election is to be held

"County Committee" or "Unit Committee" – The governing body of the Republican Party in Chesterfield County, Virginia

"County Chairman" - The chief executive officer of the Chesterfield County Republican Committee

"Committee" – The governing body of the Republican Party in Chesterfield County, Virginia, unless the text clearly refers to another committee

"Unit" – Chesterfield County

The definitions of other terms set forth in the State Party Plan are equally applicable to this County Plan and are hereby incorporated by reference.

ARTICLE V DUTIES

Section 1. – Nomination Process. Except as otherwise provided by law, the County Committee shall determine whether candidates for local and constitutional offices shall be nominated by mass meeting, party canvass, convention, or primary, and whether the Unit Chairman, Officers and County Committee members shall be elected by mass meeting party canvass, convention, or primary.

Section 2. – Method of Nomination. The County Committee shall call all regular and special mass meetings, party canvasses, and conventions, and make all appropriate arrangements. For a Convention, the County Committee shall determine the basis of representation. Authority to make such arrangements (other than the date, time, and requirements (if any) for pre-filing), may at the discretion of the County Committee, be delegated to the County Chairman.

Section 3. – Cooperation with Party Organizations. The Committee shall cooperate with the State Central Committee, its District Committee(s), and the Legislative District Committees within its boundaries in conducting all elections and fundraising activities.

Section 4 - Contests. The County Committee shall decide all controversies and contests arising within its jurisdiction, but those persons deemed adversely affected by any decision shall have the right of appeal to the appropriate District Committee. In the case of a split Unit, if the controversy or contest specifically relates to the operations or affairs of a particular Congressional or Legislative District, an appeal shall be taken to that District Committee; if not an appeal shall be taken to the District Committee of the District wherein the person appealing resides. All appeals under this section must be made in writing within thirty (30) days after the decision which is being appealed was made and said appeal must be accompanied by a petition signed by at least twenty-five (25) Party members of the County or District affected.

Section 5. - Nominations by Committee. Whenever an Election District fails to nominate a candidate for public office, in the absence of an instruction to the contrary by the Convention or Mass Meeting, the County Committee is authorized to nominate such candidate or candidates by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of those present in a Committee meeting after such notice of intent has been included in the call of the meeting, and the nominations shall have the same force and effect as if the person or persons were nominated by a Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, Convention or Primary.

Section 6. - Filling Vacancies. Whenever nominees, delegates or alternates have been duly elected by a Mass Meeting, Party Canvass, Convention or Primary and a vacancy occurs, the County Committee may fill such vacancy in formal meeting by majority vote after due notice of such intent has been included in the call of the meeting. Such a meeting shall require at least twenty-four (24) hours' notice, either oral or written.

ARTICLE VI MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. - Payment of Dues. Membership on the County Committee shall require the payment of Annual Dues and a completed membership form at the time of election. Dues shall be prorated to half year beginning on the first day of October. The amount of dues shall be determined by majority vote of those members who are present and voting at a duly called meeting.

Section 2. - Membership Classes. The membership of the County Committee shall consist of the following:

- A) Unit Chairman - The Unit Chairman shall be a member of the County Committee.
- B) Precinct Membership - Precinct membership shall consist of one (1) authorized membership for each precinct for each fifty (50) votes or any fraction  $\frac{1}{2}$  or greater thereof cast for the Republican candidates for the office of President of the United States and Governor of the Commonwealth of Virginia in the last election, provided that each precinct shall be entitled to at least one (1) member. Precinct members of the County Committee shall represent the Precincts in which they are qualified voters.

- C) At-Large Membership - Additional At-Large memberships may be created which shall not exceed in number thirty percent (30%) of the voting members of the Committee. This class of membership shall include, but is not limited to, all elected officers of the County Committee. Publicly elected Republican officials shall not be counted against the at-large membership limit.
- D) Nonresident Publicly Elected Officials - All publicly elected Republican officials who represent some portion of Chesterfield County, who neither reside nor vote in Chesterfield County, shall be Honorary Members of the County Committee, with all privileges of a member of the County Committee, except they shall not be entitled to a vote.
- E) Associate Membership - Associate members shall meet the same qualification requirements for Precinct Membership and/or At-Large Membership except they will not be required to fulfill the attendance requirements. Associate Members have privileges of membership but will not be entitled to vote. A Precinct Member or At-Large Member who loses his membership for reasons of attendance as stated in Article VI, Section 6, Paragraph A or B, shall automatically become an Associate Member until the end of the current Term. Such an Associate Member who desires to be reinstated as a Precinct Member or At-Large Member shall notify, in writing, the Recording Secretary and/or the Chairman of his intention and attend two (2) consecutive meetings. Full membership including voting privileges will be reinstated upon attendance in person at the second consecutive meeting.
- F) Honorary Membership - Nominations for Honorary membership shall be reviewed by the Executive Committee or other subcommittee created for such purpose. Such subcommittee shall issue a report to the County Committee of its recommendations together with a summary of the accomplishments of the nominee in support of Republican principles. The County Committee shall confer such membership by resolution adopted by a three-fourths (3/4) vote of those voting members present and voting. Such honorary membership shall confer all the rights and privileges of membership except the right to vote.

Section 3. - Election and Term. - The Chairman and other members of the Committee shall be elected by mass meeting, party canvass, convention or primary called for the purpose of electing delegates to the Biennial District Convention for a term of two (2) years or until their successors are elected.

Section 4. - Vacancies.

- A) Election of Members to Fill Vacancies – New members may be elected to unfilled memberships on the County Committee at any duly called meeting provided:
1. The prospective member has completed and submitted to the Chairman and/or Corresponding Secretary a membership application that includes the signatures of two current members of the County Committee as sponsors.
  2. The name and address of the prospective member is included in the call for the meeting at which the application is to be voted upon.
  3. The prospective member has submitted appropriate payment for annual dues.
- B) Election of new members shall take place as the last item of business during meetings of the County Committee. Each prospective new member must be present in order to be elected and must be nominated by a current member of the County Committee. If a new member is unable to be present at the meeting their application is to be voted upon, their election will be postponed until the next regularly scheduled meeting. Two postponements will require the submission of a new application. New members shall be elected by a majority of those present and voting at the time of the election. Each new member will be provided a copy of the County Committee By-laws and the Plan of Organization of the Republican Party of Virginia.

Section 5. - Loss of Membership.

- A) Absent Without Proxy - Any member who is absent without sending a valid proxy for two (2) consecutive duly called County Committee meetings shall be notified that his membership on the County Committee will lapse effective on the next duly called meeting. A person having been so notified may avoid losing membership by attending the next duly called meeting. A person having lost his membership under this subsection may apply for reinstatement to the Executive Committee or to the County Committee.
- B) Absent in Person - A member who fails to attend in person at least one (1) meeting of the County Committee during the year running from April 1 through March 31, shall be notified that his membership the County Committee will lapse effective on the next duly called meeting. A person so notified may avoid losing membership by attending in person the next duly called meeting. Any member who loses his membership due to Absent in Person will automatically become an Associate member.

- C) Failure to Pay Dues - A member who fails to pay his dues by April 1 in odd-numbered years shall automatically have his membership suspended during which time his membership is not counted for any purpose. If payment is not received by July 1, the membership of any such member shall be terminated.
- D) Notice - Concurrent with the call of the meeting, the Secretary shall provide in writing the notices of Section 6 (A), (B), or (C) to affected members and their Magisterial District Chairman.
- E) Removal- The Chairman or any member of the Committee may be removed from office by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the other members of the Committee, after being furnished with notice that such removal will be sought, and the charges and specifications in writing, signed by not less than one-third (1/3) of the Committee, and allowing him thirty (30) days within which to appear and defend himself.
- F) Death or Resignation - A member shall be removed from membership upon his death or written resignation.
- G) Cease to Qualify - Any member shall lose his membership on the County Committee if he ceases to be a qualified voter in Chesterfield County.
- H) Public Endorsement of a candidate in opposition to a Republican nominee for public office- A member of the County Committee is held to a higher standard of support for nominees of the Republican Party than an individual who merely participates in a mass meeting, party canvass, convention or primary. Therefore, a member of the Committee is deemed to have resigned his Committee position if he (a) makes a reportable contribution to and/or (b) allows his name to be publicly used by and/or (c) makes a written or other public statement in support of a candidate in opposition to a Republican nominee in a Virginia General or Special Election.

- vi) Federal and State Reporting. The Treasurer shall see to the preparation of all reports and filings required by Federal and Virginia law.

F) Finance Chairman. The Finance chairman shall be responsible for the recruiting and maintaining of a Finance Committee, who shall coordinate the fund raising activities of the County Committee.

G) Magisterial District Chairman. Each magisterial chairman shall promote the election of all Republican candidates who represent some portion of their respective magisterial districts. They shall appoint Precinct Chairmen and provide liaison between the County Committee, the candidates, and/or their campaign Committees, and the Precinct Chairmen. He shall represent his magisterial district by serving as a member of the Executive Committee. He shall see to the effective maintenance of Precinct organization by providing supervision and guidance to the precinct chairman. He shall also be responsible for all County Committee property within his magisterial district, but shall not be held liable for its loss.

ARTICLE VIII SUBCOMMITTEES

Section 1. - Executive Committee.

A) Membership - The membership of the Executive Committee shall consist of the Chairman, the Vice Chairmen, the Finance Chairman, the Magisterial District Chairmen, the Recording Secretary, the Corresponding Secretary, the Treasurer, and the Immediate Past Chairman. In addition, all members of the State Central Committee who live and vote in Chesterfield County shall be non-voting ex officio members of the Executive Committee.

B) Duties - The Executive Committee shall act for and administer the affairs of the County Committee between meetings, provided that all of its actions shall be in conformity with the policies, programs, and resolutions of the County Committee, and shall report its actions at each County Committee meeting. The Executive Committee shall advise the Chairman on all issues concerning the Republican Party in the County.

C) Meetings - Executive Committee meetings shall be called by the Chairman or upon petition of one-third (1/3) of its members, with no less than one (1) meeting during each three (3) month period. Absent members may be represented by proxy.

Section 2. - Finance Committee. A Finance Committee consisting of the Finance Chairman, the Vice-Chairman for Finance and the Treasurer and such other members appointed by the Finance chairman shall be responsible for coordinating the fund raising activities of the County Committee.

Section3. - Candidates for Elective Office Committee. A standing committee consisting of a Chairman and four (4) additional members. Members shall be appointed by the Unit Chairman with the advice of the Executive Committee. Additional nonvoting members shall include the Unit Chairman, any Republican elected officials, and any business leaders or other members as may be appointed by the Unit Chairman. This committee is charged to recruit and encourage suitable candidates for public office as deemed appropriate. It shall screen potential candidates to ensure compliance with applicable legal requirements and the standards of the Republican Party.

Section 4. - Audit Committee. The Unit Chairman shall each year appoint an audit committee consisting of not less than three (3) individuals, to review the financial records of the County Committee. No member of the Executive Committee, Finance Committee or individual connected with the custody of funds or recording of transactions shall be eligible to serve on said committee. If available, at least one Certified Public Accountant should serve on said committee who shall be its chairman. Other members should have sufficient experience in business, finance or accounting.

Section 5. - Other Committees. The Chairman and/or the County Committee shall create and abolish from time to time such subcommittees as each may deem appropriate to aid in the administration of the affairs of the Party. The Chairman shall appoint the Chairman of such subcommittee and may appoint the other members thereof or leave such appointment to the subcommittee chairman.

ARTICLE IX MEETINGS

Section 1. – Frequency and Call. Meetings of the County Committee shall be held upon the written notice of not less than one (1) week on the call of the Chairman or on the call of one-third (1/3) of the members, which shall include the agenda for the meeting. At least one (1) meeting shall be held during each three (3) month period.

Section 2. - Quorum Requirements. Except as otherwise provided herein, forty percent (40%) of the voting members of the County Committee shall constitute a quorum for the conducting of business. A majority of the voting members constitute a quorum for the conducting of business of any subcommittee.
